

DENNE DOES IT

Issue 1

Denne have been selected to construct one of the first commercially viable Zero Carbon developments in the UK.

The Brighton One Planet Living Community will form part of the New England Quarter. The 172 homes and community space is for BioRegional Quintain/Crest Nicholson.

Pat's Birthday.

Chris off to work in the Caribbean.

Residents from the Wokingham Resource & Opportunity Centre grew and planted the shrubs for the St. Crispins scheme in Wokingham.

Students from Sheppey College visiting London Road, Maidstone as part of their timber occupations course.

26 schools took part in the Longest Walking Bus Event in Canterbury.

Nick Biddis and Ben Green present the best banner award.

St Crispins, Wokingham, wins the Green Apple Award.

The Green Organisation is an independent, non-profit environment group dedicated to recognising, rewarding and promoting environmental best practice for the built environment.

Denne Family Fun Day

Bouncy assault course, giant slide, penalty shoot-out, crazy golf, space hoppers, face painting and treasure hunt were among the activities. Proceeds from BBQ went to Denne Charitable Trust.

Housing Corporation visit at Shere

Inspecting Structural Insulated Panel System as part of an MMC review.

Construction Careers in Action Event

Promoting opportunities in the construction industry for Year 9 students from Bexley and Greenwich.

The event was led by London & Quadrant Housing Trust and supported by the Greenwich Education Business Partnership.